

Indiana's telephone privacy law did exactly what it was supposed to do. It stopped unwanted calls at home. The banks listed in this action are trying to gain access to my home. I bank with Fifth Third Bank. I do not want them calling my home to solicit business. I can deal with the personal banker that I know when I bank at thier facility.

Keep Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law intact.